

Papatūānuku thrives

Toitū te marae a Tāne-Mahuta, toitū te marae a Tangaroa, toitū te tangata – If the land is well and the sea is well, the people will thrive

We are an honourable Treaty partner

Our outcomes

Ecosystems and species across Aotearoa New Zealand are thriving from the mountains to the seas

- A full range of ecosystems on land, water and sea are protected and enhanced
- Indigenous species are not threatened with human-induced extinction
- Landscapes, ecosystems and species are resilient to climate risk

Public conservation lands and waters are maintained and improved for future generations

- Conservation lands and waters benefit from fewer pests and reduced pressures
- We understand whānau, hapū and iwi priorities
- Cultural heritage is managed and protected
- Our actions support Aotearoa New Zealand to mitigate and adapt to climate change

Connection with nature and cultural heritage enriches people's lives

- The health and wellbeing of whānau, hapū, iwi and communities are linked to the health of nature
- From the city to the wilderness, people connect with nature and our cultural heritage
- New Zealanders care for and take action to preserve our special places and species
- A range of sustainable recreational experiences encourage New Zealanders to enjoy the outdoors
